13. Praeludium

BWV 900

The image displays the first seven measures of the Praeludium in D major, BWV 900, by Johann Sebastian Bach. The score is written for piano in G-clef (treble) and F-clef (bass) staves, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The first measure is marked with a '13' in a box. The second measure begins with a measure rest in the treble and a quarter rest in the bass. The third measure is marked with a '3' in a box. The fourth measure begins with a measure rest in the treble and a quarter rest in the bass. The fifth measure is marked with a '5' in a box. The sixth measure begins with a measure rest in the treble and a quarter rest in the bass. The seventh measure is marked with a '7' in a box. The score features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The bass line is characterized by a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

25. Fuga

BWV 952

The image displays the first thirteen measures of a musical score for a piece titled '25. Fuga' (BWV 952). The score is written for piano, featuring a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor), and the time signature is common time (C). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings. The first system (measures 1-3) shows a complex rhythmic pattern in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing a steady accompaniment. The second system (measures 4-6) continues the melodic development in the treble, with the bass clef providing a steady accompaniment. The third system (measures 7-9) shows a more complex rhythmic pattern in the treble, with the bass clef providing a steady accompaniment. The fourth system (measures 10-12) continues the melodic development in the treble, with the bass clef providing a steady accompaniment. The fifth system (measures 13) shows a complex rhythmic pattern in the treble, with the bass clef providing a steady accompaniment.
