Teacher's accompaniment

You could try this using the flute voice on an electronic keyboard.

Miss Suki Mambo, Dame Gertrude Poynt and Sir Henry Fox-Trotter are three of the nation's leading dance judges. But they've lost their score boards, so we can't tell who's been generous, who's been mean, and who's hedging their bets! Can you lead each judge back to their board?

Disco Ball Fever

Have you ever seen a glittering mirror ball, hanging above a dance floor? This piece conjures up the fun and excitement of a 1970's disco, with wild fashions and platform shoes all illuminated by the twinkling of the ball.

Joyful and rhythmic, not too heavy ♩ = 104
