

Oft have I sigh'd

Thomas Campion (1567–1620)

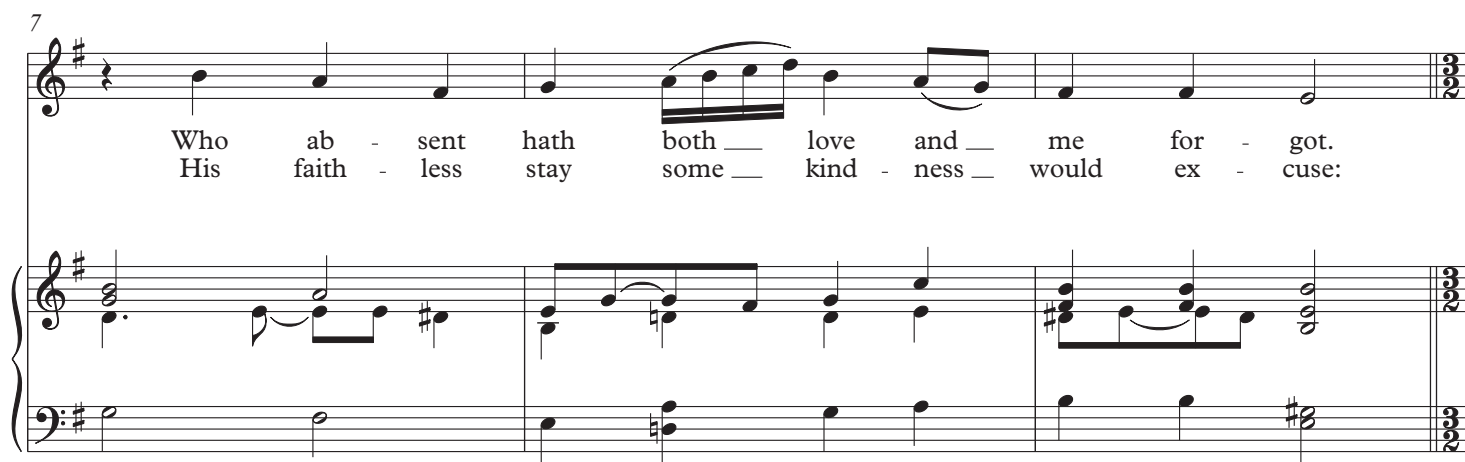

Thomas Campion (1567–1620)

1. Oft have I sigh'd, oft have I
2. Had he but lov'd had he but sigh'd, lov'd, oft have I sigh'd for him that hears me not:

lov'd, had he but lov'd as com - mon lov - ers use,

Who ab - sent hath stay both ___ love and ___ me for - got.
His faith - less stay some ___ kind - ness ___ would ex - cuse:

Sonntag

Ludwig Uhland (1787–1862)

Johannes Brahms (1833–1897)

Nicht zu langsam

So hab' ich doch die gan - ze Wo - che mein fei - nes Lieb - chen nicht ge -

- seh'n, ich sah es an ei - nem Sonn - tag wohl - vor der Tü - re

steh'n: das tau - send - schö - ne Jung - frau - lein, das tau - send - schö - ne

Her - ze - lein, woll - te Gott, woll - te Gott, ich wär' heu - te bei ihr,